AIR SUSPENSION CLASS

Technology, Diagnosis, Repair

LEVEL 2: PROFESSIONAL

For technicians
who perform
Air Suspension repairs

The air suspension can no longer be found only in upper and luxury-class vehicles, but also in mid-range and compact vehicles. As spring bellows are also subject to normal wear and tear, this is important area for technicians to understand and diagnose and repair accurately. This class will teach how to perform a reliable damage diagnosis and which techniques are used to replace components quickly and easily.
